Friends and Teen Talk Summer Camps

Children and teens in Grades 4 – 9 who need extra support with social and emotional skills.

Summer break is a perfect opportunity to enroll your child in a structured program that combines social-emotional learning and recreational activities to help kids and teens build healthy relationships, mental wellness, conversation skills, effective communication, friendships, coping strategies and more!

Program can also be offered in a one-to-one format for kids who need a little extra support to learn skills.
